

Tier. Governance & Security

Principle. “Always authenticate data flows and information requested by internal and external users.”

Rationale.

The PCS implementation consists of multiple different components which needs specific authentication and authorization capabilities.

By following the need-to-know principle, user access controls and authorisation procedures can be enforced. Its objective is to ensure that only authorised individuals gain access to information or systems necessary to undertake their duties.

